AN INSPIRING LEGACY OF LEADERSHIP

Late Shri Jagdishprasad
Jhabarmal Tibrewala

1926-1995

As a visionary leader and guiding light, he was one of the eminent former Presidents of Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh who dedicated his life to serving the Rajasthani community and preserving its rich culture and heritage, even while living far from his homeland. As a man of exceptional dynamism, he successfully established enterprises and played a significant role in strengthening and expanding the presence of Shri Khemi Sati Mandir. Deeply committed to community welfare, he actively contributed through leading Pravasi organizations such as Marwari Sammelan and Rajasthani Vidyarthi Griha, and his remarkable efforts led to the development of the iconic Shri Khemi Sati Mandir in Jhunjhunu under the leadership of Shri Rajasthani Seva Sangh Trust. Education was very close to his heart; he fulfilled his vision by establishing a school in his father's memory and worked tirelessly to transform the region into a thriving educational hub, contributing towards the growth of a university. Under his leadership, the Trust made significant contributions in developing temples, schools, and colleges at J.B. Nagar. His life and work continue to inspire us, and it is a legacy we are proud to carry forward.
