

Dear Sir / Madam,

Education is a fundamental right of every individual as it plays a prominent role in life. The spread of COVID19, has paused the life due to worldwide lockdown affecting the life of people, families, and communities. Many countries in all over world have declared shut down educational institutions impacting the life of approximately sixty billion students across the globe. The great personality Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the Chief Architect of Indian Constitution said once very important and valuable statement that “An ideal society should be mobile, should be full of channels for conveying a change taking place in one part to other parts. In an ideal society there should be many interests consciously communicated and shared. There should be varied and free points of contact with other modes of association. In other words there should be social endosmosis. This is fraternity, which is only another name for democracy. Democracy is not merely a form of Government. It is primarily a mode of associated living, of conjoint communicated experience. It is essentially an attitude of respect and reverence towards fellowmen.” And with such inspiring words encourages us to introduce and learn various new trends of virtual and online education, We the educationist are in process of learning in this challenging period of COVID-19 very positively and have come up with an alternate way of learning Online/ E-learning mode has been widely accepted which is proven to be an opportunity and a challenge as there is still unknown that is not giving the desired output in the teaching-learning virtual process. The motto of our this International multidisciplinary conference on “Opportunity and a challenge of exciting trends of virtual education” is to highlight the impact of a pandemic on education globally while adapting the E-Learning and exploring the opportunities and facing the challenges during and post COVID19.

Hence the organiser humbly demands to research scholar/ teachers/ professor/ industrialist and educationalist to submit their research papers in the international conference. Participants welcome from different fields or departments of education and other fields those who want contribute the idea and experiences faced during these challenging periods of COVID-19, we know that we somehow interconnected on all levels of different fields of education and has much to say on this unexpected incident from which whole globe has going through, but with the new technology and idea we have come up with solution for better future in way of virtual education. This conference motto is very clear to understand the challenges and short out the problems with very broad concept. Yes, in spite of this we know that physical appearance is sometimes necessary. Our success is that we find the path or a concrete medium in this corona period how we utilize our time with our knowledge. We hope each and every one satisfied after the event.
