3. DEFINITIONS

Feedback

Feedback is a process in which the effect or impact of an action or interaction is communicated back (feedback) to modify or improve the next action or interaction.

Evaluation

Evaluation refers to a rigorous analysis of completed or ongoing activities that determine or support lecturer and management accountability, effectiveness, and efficiency.

Course Evaluation

A course evaluation is a process of collecting opinions of students on a paper or electronic questionnaire which requires a written or selected response answer to a series of questions to evaluate the relevance, contents, assessment and instruction of a given course.

Unit

A unit (also called the subject) is a branch of knowledge studied or taught in a school, college or university that forms a part of a degree program or course. Teaching Evaluation Teaching evaluation refers to the formal vetting process of teachers that an educational institution uses to review and rate teachers' performance and effectiveness in the classroom to maintain its teaching standards.

3. POLICY

4.1 It is a policy that the Institute will survey students to collect feedback on:

- courses and units;
- quality of teaching; and
- Experience with the Institute.

4.2 Feedback processes will be anonymous, systematic, rigorous and respectful of the rights of students and staff and incorporate strategies to maximise student participation. Full privacy and confidentiality will be ensured at all stages of the process.

4.3 For every unit, a Unit and Teaching Survey will be administered each time a unit is delivered as per the provisions under the 'Procedures' section of this policy. A set of core questions will form the basis of the survey deployed to systematically evaluate teaching and learning in all Institute units.

4.4 For every course, a Student Experience Questionnaire will be administered annually. A set of questions constructed from Quality Indicators for Learning and Teaching (QILT) survey will form the basis of the survey deployed to systematically evaluate student experience at the Institute.

4.5 A Graduate Outcome Survey will be administered annually. A set of questions constructed from Quality Indicators for Learning and Teaching (QILT) survey will form the basis of the survey deployed to systematically evaluate graduate satisfaction level and employment outcomes.

4.6 A range of other feedback mechanisms will be employed when appropriate including student representatives on the Learning and Teaching Quality Committee and Academic Board, focus group meeting and informal student comments.

4.7 All students will be provided with the opportunity to provide feedback in full confidence of anonymity.

4.8 Student Feedback will be used:

- to improve the quality of courses and units through the development of annual improvement plans;
- to support the scholarship of teaching;
- to inform the professional development needs of academic staff;
- to enhance course and unit design;
- to improve the provision of learning resources, facilities, equipment and services through the development of annual improvement plans; and
- to compare and benchmark the Institute's performance against the sector or other providers.

4. QUALITY ASSURANCE

To ensure that the Student Feedback Policy is fit for purpose and meet the requirements of the ES

Threshold Standards, this policy will be:

5.1 Internally endorsed by the Executive Management Team on development or review, before approval by the Governing Board, or the Academic Board or other delegated authority.

5.2 Externally reviewed as part of any independent review of the HES Threshold Standards approved by the Governing Board.

5.3 Internally reviewed by the Responsible Officer every three years from the date of approval (if note earlier).

5.4 Referenced to the applicable HES threshold Standard and or other legislation/regulation.

5. FEEDBACK

Feedback or comments on this policy is welcomed by the listed Responsible Officers of the Institute.
